Transition Lot Management Plan

- (v) a Residence or any other improvements to the Lot unless they comply with the Transition Lot Management Plan which applies to the Lot.

3. Restrictive Covenants – Use of the Lot

Pursuant to section 136D of the Transfer of Land Act 1893 (WA), the registered proprietor must not:

Landscaping

- (a) permit garden areas on the Lot within Public View to remain unlandscaped for more than three (3) months following the date of completion of the Residence. For the purposes of this clause, to landscape the Lot all areas in Public View must be cleared and grassed, planted or otherwise covered with a vegetated beautifying surface and have a reticulated water system installed;

Ground Level

- (b) change the average finished ground level of the Lot by more than five hundred millimetres (500mm) from the original median finished ground level of the Lot. This restriction does not apply in relation to activities requiring temporary excavation works such as installing a swimming pool or spa bath;

Retaining Walls and Fences

- (c) paint, alter or remove or in any way interfere with the structural integrity of any retaining wall erected on any boundary of the Lot provided that this does not prevent the undertaking of any works or repairs to the retaining wall where necessary to maintain its structural integrity or its condition or where properly required by any relevant authority;
- (d) in relation to a fence on the boundary of the Lot constructed by the Developer or a party on the Developer's behalf:
 - (i) alter or remove the fence except as required to repair or replace the fence because of damage or wear and tear; and
 - (ii) repair or renew the fence with any materials which are not of the same nature, quality and standard as those originally used;

Vehicles

- (e) repair or maintain or permit to be repaired or maintained on the Lot any motor vehicle, boat, trailer or any other vehicle or machinery unless it occurs behind the front building line of the Residence and is screened from Public View;
- (f) park or permit to be parked on the Lot any boat, caravan, trailer or commercial vehicle including trucks, buses and tractors unless screened from Public View;

Rubbish Bins

- (g) permit any rubbish disposal containers on the Lot to be in Public View except on days allocated by the local authority for rubbish collection;

Signage

- (h) erect or permit to be erected any signage or advertisements on the Lot unless it is a builder's sign required during construction and is no more than six hundred millimetres by six hundred millimetres (600mm x 600mm) or a real estate sign associated with the sale of an established Residence;

Domestic Pets

- (i) raise, breed or keep or permit to be raised, bred or kept any insects, reptiles, animals, livestock or poultry on the Lot or any part thereof provided that this restriction shall not operate to prevent the registered proprietor from keeping up to four domestic pets on the Lot;

Sea Containers

- (j) store or permit to be stored or otherwise located on the Lot any sea containers or similar transportable storage containers; and

Display Home

- (k) use or allow the Residence to be used as a display home.

4. General Provisions

- (a) The registered proprietor acknowledges that the burden of the restrictive covenants contained in this deed runs with the Lot for the benefit of the registered proprietors of the other Lots and shall be enforceable against the registered proprietor and every subsequent registered proprietor of the Lot.
- (b) The registered proprietor acknowledges that each restrictive covenant contained in this deed is separate from each other restrictive covenant contained in this deed and therefore if any restrictive covenant becomes invalid or unenforceable then the remaining restrictive covenants will not be affected and each remaining restrictive covenant will be valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.
- (c) The registered proprietor acknowledges that it must comply with and observe the restrictive covenants contained in this deed and furthermore acknowledges that the Developer is not under any obligation to enforce the restrictive covenants contained in this deed but reserves the right to do so.
- (d) The registered proprietor acknowledges that the restrictive covenants contained in this deed will not be modified, surrendered, released or abandoned whether wholly or partially.
- (e) The registered proprietor shall not make an application to any Court, the Registrar of Titles or Landgate for the partial or complete modification, removal or extinguishment of the restrictive covenants contained in this deed.
- (f) The restrictive covenants contained in this deed shall expire and cease to have effect from and including 31 December 2025.
